What you get

One live conversation in three parts, timed like the IELTS Speaking test, then a written report.

4	criterion bands Fluency and Coherence, Lexical Resource, Grammatical Range and Accuracy, Pronunciation.
1	overall band The average of the four, rounded down to the nearest half band.
1	target band with a date Plus a written plan built on the weakest criterion and a re-test on the parallel form.
1	family plan For learners under 18: what to do at home, ten minutes a day.

> The report in this sample is for a fictional student, Minh, age 10. Practice assessment, not an official IELTS score; bands are coaching estimates and no band is guaranteed.

> How it works. One live session on Google Meet. For learners under 18 a parent or guardian books and gives consent; these sessions are never recorded. © 2026–2027 WorldWise Learning and JurassicEnglish.com.

How the session runs

Stage	Minutes	What happens
Set-up	about 2	Hello, a microphone and camera check. Not scored.
Part 1	4–5	Short questions on one familiar topic.
Part 2	3–4	A task card, one minute to make notes, then 1–2 minutes of speaking.
Part 3	5–6	A discussion linked to the Part 2 topic: opinions, comparisons, reasons.
Wrap-up	1–2	Next steps. Bands are finalised after the session, never while the learner is still speaking.

One live session of 15–20 minutes on Google Meet with Mr. Jay, camera on, timed like the IELTS Speaking test. The learner sits Form A or Form B; the other form is kept for the re-test. For learners under 18, a parent or guardian books and gives consent, and the session is never recorded.

Speaking Baseline report

SAMPLE REPORT · FICTIONAL STUDENT

Student	Minh (fictional), age 10
Booked by	Parent, with consent
Form	A (Form B is kept for the re-test)
Recording	None (under 18: never recorded; live notes only)
Assessor	Mr. Jay, Jurassic English

Bands

Criterion	Band	In one line
Fluency and Coherence	5.0	Keeps going in Part 1; stops after about 50 seconds in Part 2.
Lexical Resource	4.5	Knows everyday words; repeats "very good" and "very fun".
Grammatical Range and Accuracy	4.5	Simple sentences are mostly right; the past tense slips in stories.
Pronunciation	5.0	Easy to understand; word endings (-ed, -s) are often dropped.
Overall	4.5	Average 4.75, rounded down to the nearest half band.

What Minh does well

- Answers straight away. In Part 1 Minh answered every question without long pauses. Asked "What do you do after school?", Minh said: "I play badminton with my brother, and then I do my homework."
- Gives a reason when asked. "I like weekends because I can sleep late."
- Is easy to understand. Clear rhythm and good volume; Minh did not need to repeat anything.

What holds the band back

1. The past tense in stories. Part 2 card: "Describe a day out with your family." Minh started in the past and then slipped into the present: "Last summer we go to the beach. My father buy ice cream." Four slips in 50 seconds.
2. Part 2 is short. Minh stopped at about 50 seconds and said "That's all." The test allows up to 2 minutes; a full answer is about 90 seconds or more.
3. Word endings. The -ed ending and the -s on he/she/it verbs are often not heard: "my mom cook", "we walk to the park" (meaning walked).
4. Repeated words. "Very good" and "very fun" came up six times. Minh needs two or three new ways to describe a good time.

Target

- Target band: 5.0 overall.
- Target date: 12 weeks from this Baseline, then a re-test on Form B.
- Why this target: the two lowest bands (4.5) are about habits, not missing knowledge. Minh knows the past forms when asked one by one, so regular practice can make them automatic.

Plan

Built on the weakest criterion: Grammatical Range and Accuracy.

Weeks	Focus	What Minh practises
1–3	Stay in the past	Tell a short story every day and keep every verb in the past until "Now…". Say 10 past verbs aloud, holding the last sound.
4–6	Speak for longer	Build Part 2 one step at a time: who-what-when, then one thing someone said, then before and after. Target 90 seconds.
7–9	New words for good times	Replace "very good" and "very fun" with word pairs such as "had a great time" and "it was so exciting".
10–12	Put it together	Full Part 2 and Part 3 answers under exam timing. Re-test on Form B.

Three things to do at home

Ten minutes a day is enough.

1. Dinner-table story. Ask Minh, "What happened at school today?" Let Minh answer in English for one minute. Listen for one thing only: did the verbs stay in the past?
2. The "why" question. After any answer, ask "Why?" once. A reason makes an answer longer and stronger.
3. Hear the ending. When Minh says a past verb, ask Minh to say it again "with the end you can hear": walked, played, needed.

What not to do

- Don't correct every mistake. One kind of mistake a week is enough.
- Don't ask Minh to learn answers by heart. Examiners notice memorised answers.

What happens next

- Lessons can follow this plan: 1-to-1 with Mr. Jay, or Mr. Jay can recommend self-study lessons for each step.
- The re-test uses Form B, so Minh meets new questions, not the same ones.

Tóm tắt cho phụ huynh

Minh nói tự tin và dễ hiểu. Điều cần cải thiện nhất là giữ thì quá khứ khi kể chuyện và nói dài hơn ở Part 2. Mục tiêu: band 5.0 sau 12 tuần, sau đó kiểm tra lại bằng đề B. Mỗi ngày phụ huynh chỉ cần 10 phút: hỏi con kể lại một chuyện trong ngày bằng tiếng Anh và hỏi thêm "Why?".
