The Full Ladder: 110 Seconds

- Length: 60 minutes · one teacher, one student · Google Meet
- Goal: the student adds Rung 4, LAND IT, and speaks a full Part 2 for at least 90 seconds without help.
- Assumes: an earlier lesson taught -ed endings you can hear, the before/after bridge and keeping a story in the past tense.
- Rules: the stopwatch is the record; the student writes their own numbers. Praise quotes the student's exact sentence. One fix at a time. No band is given in a lesson.

The ladder

Rung	Time	What the student does
1 SET IT	15 s	who, what, when
2 ANCHOR IT	40 s	a quote and a sense detail
3 WIDEN IT	35 s	before, after, compare
4 LAND IT	20 s	what it taught you, then a closing sentence
Total	110 s	the floor is 90 s; the target is 110 s

Lesson plan

Step	Time	What happens	How it is measured
1 · Your target	0:00 · 3 min	The student writes their longest Part 2 so far and says a target for today. The floor is 90 seconds and the target is 110.	Target written by the student
2 · Cold check: the last sound	0:03 · 3 min	No teaching first. The teacher says 10 verbs (hurry, decide, stop, carry, start, ask, want, close, jump, miss), one every 10 seconds. The student says each one in the past and holds the last sound.	Endings clearly heard, out of 10 (target 8)
3 · Cold check: stay in the past	0:06 · 3 min	"Tell me about the last time you visited a friend's or a relative's house." 45 seconds. Then a tick or a cross for each check.	Present-tense slips in the story (target 2 or fewer)
4 · Fix only what failed	0:09 · 5 min	Only the crosses are fixed. Endings: /t/ walked · /d/ planned · /ɪd/ needed, then the missed words again. Past lane: "Stay in the past until 'Now…' or 'If…'." The student re-tells the part that failed.	Missed words repaired; story re-told
5 · The full ladder and Rung 4	0:14 · 5 min	The four rungs and their clocks. Then the closing frames: "Looking back, …" · "That taught me …" · "If I could do it again, I would …" · "Now I always …". Never end with "That's all."	The student names the four rungs and says each frame once
6 · LAND IT drill	0:19 · 3 min	Two closing sentences for each story, 20 seconds each: you forgot a friend's birthday · you broke your phone screen on a school trip · you waited for a friend who forgot to come.	Closing sentences, out of 3

Step	Time	What happens	How it is measured
7 · Practice card: plan	0:22 · 2 min	"Describe a time you waited a long time for something." One minute to write four words, one for each rung.	Plan made, yes or no
8 · Rung walk	0:24 · 8 min	The student speaks one rung at a time. The teacher stops at each clock (15, 40, 35, 20 seconds), praises one exact sentence and gives one fix. A short rung is said again at once.	Seconds per rung against 15 / 40 / 35 / 20
9 · Listen for the change	0:32 · 5 min	Three short messages read once. Each has a change of plan ("Actually, let's make it ten"). The student says the final answer in a full sentence and the word that signalled the change.	Final answers, out of 3
10 · Part 3: answer first	0:37 · 5 min	Two questions: "Why are some people always late?" and "Is it more important to be on time at work or at school? Why?" Answer first, then a reason, an example and a closing sentence.	Four moves heard; 30–45 seconds each
11 · Exam rules and a new card	0:42 · 3 min	A card the student has not seen: "Describe a time you were late for something important." One minute of notes, four words.	Notes made
12 · Speak: up to 2 minutes	0:45 · 3 min	No help, no prompts. The teacher says nothing until 2:00 or until the student stops, then waits 5 seconds.	Total seconds (floor 90, target 110); rung reached
13 · Your result	0:48 · 2 min	The student writes the time, the rung reached and their closing sentence. "Where did I stop? What was I going to say next?"	Numbers written by the student
14 · Go again	0:50 · 4 min	Same story, longer and better, using the answer to "What was I going to say next?"	Second time against the first (aim: 15 seconds more)
15 · Close and practice at home	0:54 · 6 min	The student says one thing done well (a sentence from today) and one thing still short (a number). The teacher goes through the printable lesson handout for practice at home.	Home practice understood

If time runs short: shorten step 9, then step 6. Never cut steps 8, 12 or 14.

Lesson handout · practise at home

Name: _____ Lesson date: _____

This week: one full Part 2 story a day for three days. Time it on your phone. Speak first; write only your numbers.

1. Plan and speak

Before you speak, write four words, one for each rung. Then speak for up to 2 minutes. Aim for 110 seconds. Finish with a closing sentence, never "That's all."

	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3
My story topic
My four plan words
My seconds
Rung I reached (1–4)
My closing sentence

Topics to choose from: a time you helped someone · a time you learned something outside school · a time something did not go to plan.

Closing sentences to borrow: Looking back, … · That taught me … · If I could do it again, I would … · Now I always …

2. The last sound, once a day

Say these in the past and hold the end: hurry · decide · stop · carry · start · ask · want · close · jump · miss.

	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3
10 verbs said (yes / no)

3. Check yourself after Day 3

- ☐ I stayed in the past until "Now…" or "If…".
- ☐ I said one quote and one sense detail in Rung 2.
- ☐ I compared before and after in Rung 3.
- ☐ I finished with a closing sentence every time.
